

Call for Nominations

2021 Entrepreneur of the Year Award

The Rochester Section of the American Chemical Society welcomes nominations for its 2021 Entrepreneur of the Year Award - from both members and non-members. This award recognizes entrepreneurs, within the 6 county Rochester ACS Section area, who have created or been instrumental in advancing the technology of an area company with a strong chemical component. Starting with a good idea, sustained by a passion for innovation, fueled by creativity, persistence, and hard work, the award recipient created something where nothing existed before or improved an existing product/technology. The awardee is recognized for demonstrating the central role of chemistry in promoting the economic development of the Rochester area and improving people's lives. The hallmarks of this contribution are advancing the chemical sciences and impact, positive impact on people's lives and positive impact on the economy by creating chemistry jobs that impact the local economy.

Nominations should be submitted by September 27, 2021 (using the nomination form that can be downloaded from the Section web site (www.rochesteracs.org) and sent to: hgysling@rochester.rr.com).

This award recipient will be announced on October 11, 2021 and will be presented at the Section's Annual Recognition Dinner in the Fall of 2021.
